No.F.14018/1/25-PR/34

Dated: Aizawl, the 28th April, 2026

FAKE OFFICE MEMORANDUM ORIGINATOR ARRESTED

On 27th April 2026, a complaint was received at the Cyber Crime Police Station from the Under Secretary, General Administration Department, Government of Mizoram, regarding a fake Office Memorandum being circulated on social media falsely declaring a public holiday on 27.04.2026 due to heavy rainfall. The forged document was fraudulently projected as having been issued by the General Administration Department, purportedly approved by Pi Irene Zohlimpui Chongthu, Additional Secretary, GAD, and carried a forged digital signature of Pu Ch. Lalnunkima, Deputy Secretary, GAD thereby causing considerable confusion and chaos among the public.

Cyber Crime Police Station immediately registered CCPS Case No. 17/26 dated 27.04.2026 under Sections 336(3)/353(1)(b) BNS, and launched prompt investigation.

Through sustained and professional investigative efforts, Mizoram Police successfully traced and located the originator of the fake post within 24 hours. On 28th April 2026, the originator, Lalramhlua (18 years), son of Michael Lalramchhuana, resident of Upper Republic Veng, Aizawl was identified and arrested for further legal action.

Mizoram Police issues a stern warning that the creation, circulation or amplification of fake news, forged government documents, or misleading content on social media constitutes a serious criminal offence and will invite strict legal consequences. Strong action shall be taken against individuals found indulging in such activities.
