He said that Discipline is the backbone of any professional police organization which ensures professional conduct, shapes our decisions, promotes fairness and consistency and ultimately determines the trust the public places on police. He urged all ranks of Mizoram Police to actively participate in the initiative and let this year be remembered as a turning point, a year when Mizoram Police strengthened not only its discipline but also its physical and mental resilience.

The booklet titled “Mizoram Police Model Guidelines for Year of Discipline 2026–2027 (Core Principles and Specific Areas of Focus)”, which outlines the strategic framework and actionable priorities for the initiative was formally released by the chief guest.

In his address, the Hon’ble Home Minister, Pu K. Sapdanga, underscored the vital role of discipline in enhancing efficiency and service delivery within the police force. He stated that the initiative reflects the firm commitment of Mizoram Police in strengthening the core values of policing.

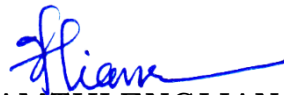

Emphasizing that discipline is the foundation of policing, he urged all ranks to serve the public with integrity, fairness, and professionalism. He cautioned against complacency arising from prolonged peace and stressed that such conditions must not lead to a decline in standards.

Highlighting that public adherence to law is driven by trust rather than fear, he also noted that trust is built on discipline—in conduct, decision-making, and character at all times.
