MAJOR DRUG BUST BY CHAMPHAI POLICE

Champhai Police made a major bust in its ongoing fight against drug trafficking by detecting 6 separate drug-related cases in a single day, leading to the arrest of 8 individuals, with a total seizure of 29 soap cases of heroin, valued at over ₹70 lakh.

1. On 03.06.2026 at around 12:30 PM, during routine checking of a Sumo vehicle proceeding towards Aizawl at Champhai Khankawn Check Gate, one passenger identified as Lalhriatzuali (23), Dinthar Veng, Champhai, was suspected of concealing contraband substances on her person. Upon search, she voluntarily produced three (3) soap cases of suspected heroin, weighing approximately 29 grams, valued at around ₹5,80,000/-. The contraband was concealed in her undergarments at the abdominal region.
2. On 03.06.2026 at around 1:00 PM, during routine checking Champhai Khankawn Check Gate, a Sumo vehicle proceeding towards Aizawl was halted, wherein one passenger identified as Hmangaihzuali (37), resident of Niawhtlang, Siaha District, was suspected of concealing contraband substances on her person. During search, she voluntarily produced three (3) soap cases of suspected heroin, weighing approximately 40 grams, valued at around ₹8,00,000/-, concealed in her socks (both sides) as well as inside her trouser at the waist area.
3. On 03.06.2026 at around 1:00 PM, during routine checking at Champhai Khankawn Check Gate, one passenger of a Sumo proceeding towards Aizawl, identified as Lianneihmawii (21), Tuirial, Aizawl, was suspected of concealing contraband substances on her person. Upon search, she voluntarily produced one (1) soap case of suspected heroin, weighing approximately 12 grams, valued at around ₹2,40,000/-, concealed inside clothing.
4. On 03.06.2026 at around 3:00 PM, during routine vehicle checking at Champhai Khankawn Check Gate, a Sumo vehicle proceeding towards Aizawl was intercepted. During checking, a black-coloured travelling bag placed on the rear seat was suspected to contain contraband substances. On enquiry, the ownership of the said bag was claimed by one of the passengers, namely Wesley Thangmawii (19) of Bethlehem Vengchhak, Aizawl. During search of the bag, fourteen (14) soap cases of suspected heroin, weighing approximately 180 grams and valued at around ₹36,00,000/-, were recovered from the said bag.
