Dated: Aizawl, the 16th Oct., 2026

LAUNCHING OF e-OFFICE AT POLICE HEADQUARTERS, MIZORAM

The e-Office system for Police Headquarters (PHQ), Mizoram, was formally inaugurated by Pu K. Sapdanga, Hon'ble Home Minister, Mizoram, on 16th October, 2026, at G.S. Arya Mess, Police Headquarters, Aizawl.

The programme commenced with welcome speech by Pu H. Ramthlengliana, IPS, Inspector General of Police (Hqrs). Pu Sharad Agarwal, IPS, Director General of Police, Mizoram, presented a brief report on the initiative and its significance for the organisation, and other recent initiatives and activities of Mizoram Police. The e-Office system was launched by Pu K. Sapdanga, Hon'ble Home Minister, Mizoram, who also addressed the gathering, stating that this initiative demonstrates the importance Mizoram Police places on modernizing office operations and workflows through modern technology, and digital governance and conveyed his best wishes for its effective utilization.

The introduction of e-Office at Police Headquarters marks an important step towards modernising the administrative functioning of Mizoram Police through digital governance. The system is expected to facilitate faster movement of files, improve efficiency in official correspondence and decision-making, enhance transparency and accountability, and promote a paperless working environment.

PHQ comprises 18 Branches and 17 Personal Branches, making a total of 35 Branches. The profile mapping of 23 officers and approximately 53 Dealing Officers has already been completed. To facilitate the smooth and efficient implementation of the e-Office system, the NIC has provided about 60 Mbps Internet Connection, which will ensure efficient and seamless operation of the e-Office system.

Police Headquarters become the eighth (8th) Directorate in the State to adopt the system.
