No.F.14018/1/19-SMC/PART FILE/415

Dated Aizawl the 1st December, 2022

One day 'State Level Conference on Anti-Human Trafficking' was conducted today at Assembly Conference Hall, Assembly Annexe, Aizawl. Hon'ble Home Minister, Mizoram graced the inaugural function as Chief Guest and DGP Mizoram Pu Devesh Chandra Srivastva IPS was the Guest of Honour. The event was organized by State Anti-Human Trafficking Unit (CID), Mizoram Police and sponsored by Women Safety Division, Ministry of Home Affairs, Govt. of India.

Speaking on the occasion, Home Minister Pu Lalchamlia said that human trafficking is a big scourge to our society; and hoped that this conference would provide a platform where professionals working at different levels of this process can share their expertise/experience and promote anti-human trafficking efforts in our State and in the country. He said that Human trafficking is not a global issue and it has its footprints in our own State too. It is one of the most shameful crimes, affecting the lives of many people. He also expressed his appreciation for Mizoram Police for their sincere efforts against human trafficking, in and outside the state and mentioned that Mizoram recorded the highest conviction rates in cases relating to crimes against women in the country, according to NCRB Data 2021. He also stressed upon the fact that collaboration, active support and participation among Mizoram Police, public, civil society and all stakeholders is key to success in the relentless fight against the menace of Human Trafficking. He added that bringing back the rescued victims to normal life by all stakeholders should also remain priority.

Guest of Honour Pu Devesh Chandra Srivastva, IPS, DGP Mizoram in his speech said that commercial sexual exploitation among women and girls is found to be a major cause of concerns in trafficking from Mizoram. Poverty and unemployment are the main causes for commercial sexual exploitation. Majority of the incidents are inter-state and even abroad, where many youths (both boys and girls) are promised with lucrative jobs but they ended up becoming victims of human trafficking at the destination. Due to internal strife in the neighbouring countries, displacement of certain population has happened, who may also become easy and possible potential victims, as well. He also said that since 2000, there have been 35 human trafficking cases in Mizoram with 89 women and 6 men as the victims in these cases. All these victims were rescued by Mizoram Police and 64 persons involved in those cases were arrested. Of the 35 cases, 29 cases has been charge sheeted and 4 cases were returned as FR. This year, 2 cases have been registered and are still under investigation. He hoped that this conference will bear fruitful outcome in the relentless fight against this menace of human trafficking.

The inaugural function was chaired by Pu Lalhuliana Fanai, IPS DIG CID & Nodal Officer, AHTU Mizoram and concluded with vote of thanks from Pu Deotosh K.S. Singh, IPS, SP CID (Crime) & Asst. Nodal Officer, AHTU Mizoram.

The Conference was attended by total 103 participants from Mizoram Police, Civil Society/NGOs (CYMA, MHIP, KTP, MTKP, Salvation Army Hqrs., MZP, KTP, Young Chakma Association, Salvation Army Youth and MUP), Mizoram Women Commission, CWC, DCPU, Placement Agencies and other Govt. Agencies, etc. Experts from legal and other related fields delivered the lectures and a fruitful discussion among the participants was held.
