

MIZORAM POLICE PRESS STATEMENT

No.F.14018/1/19-SMC/PART FILE/443

Dated Aizawl, the 2nd March, 2023

In another favourable collaboration with corporate entities for boosting the welfare and morale of Mizoram Police personnel and their family members, Shri Ratan Lal Foundation, Delhi presented 28 nos. of sewing machine worth Rs. 2 Lakhs to Mizoram Police Wives' Welfare Association (MPWWA) under their Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) programme. The sewing machines will be utilized in training women for tailoring and garment making skills.

A function was held today at 3:30 p.m. at GS Arya Mess, PHQ for handing over of the sponsored sewing machines to the office bearers of MPWWA. The function was chaired by Pu John Neihlaia, IPS, IGP(Hqrs). Pu Devesh Chandra Srivastva, IPS, DGP Mizoram handed over the sewing machines to the Police Wives' Welfare Association, which was received by Office Bearers of MPWWA. The function was concluded by Pu Lalbiakthanga Khiangte, IPS, IGP(L&O) by delivering vote of thanks.

DGP Mizoram in his handing over speech thanked Shri Ratan Lal Foundation for their kind gesture towards empowerment of women through their generous contribution. He also congratulated MPWWA for acquiring much needed sewing machines, which will significantly contribute in their efforts for empowerment of women and lauded their work for police families. He exhorted them to expand their activities promising that all senior officers of Mizoram Police will extend all possible help.
