Dated Aizawl the 5th Feb, 2024

JOINT OPERATION AGAINST NARCOTIC DRUGS & ILLICIT LIQUOR AT LUNGLEI

Joint Operation against Narcotic drugs and illicit liquor was conducted on 3rd February 2024, involving multiple departments such as Lunglei District Police, Excise Department, Border Security Force (BSF), and Village Defence Parties (VDP). The Operation demonstrated a comprehensive approach to law enforcement in addressing narcotics, local made liquor (LML), and Motor Vehicles (MV) rules violations.

The operation started with a briefing at Govt. Lunglei High School, Chanmari, and spanned from 12:00pm to 5:00pm on 3.2.2024. The team was divided into two sections for effective coverage of areas identified for surveillance and checks. The command centres/check points were strategically placed at 3Gate and Pukpui Centenary Point, led by SDPO Lunglei and Dy.SP(P) Pu Stephan Lalramthara, respectively.

Key achievements of the operation include:

Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances (NDPS) Act Violation: The seizure of 2.4 grams valued approx. Rs.7000 in local market of suspected Heroin from B. Laldinthara of Lunglawn, resulting in a case registered under section 27 of the NDPS Act.

Mizoram Liquor Prohibition (MLP) Act Violation: The seizure of LML from individuals, indicating the ongoing efforts to enforce the MLP Act and combat illegal liquor trade. Total 22 litres of LML, valued Rs.11,000 were seized by the joint operation party.

Motor Vehicle (MV) Rules Violations: The operation addressed various MV rules violations, ranging from not wearing helmets to dangerous driving and no parking violations. Realized Traffic fines from five violators amounted to Rs.7000 during the operation.

The operation concluded with a debriefing programme, emphasizing the importance of reflection and learning from each enforcement action. The collaborative effort across various departments showcases a unified front in the fight against illegal activities and the promotion of safety and lawfulness in the community.
